KILLED BY LIGHTNING.

Two Others Injured by Bolt And
Three Boys Shocked by Charged
Pole.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 19.—One man was killed, two other men were injured by lightning and three boys were shocked during a storm which swept this city and vicinity yesterday afternoon, causing heavy property damage. Many residences and business houses were struck by lightning, resultant fires causing much loss.

The three boys were shocked by contact with a charged iron pole. Though unconscious for a short time, all will recover.

Several residences in Braddock were struck by lightning, and the fire department was kept busy fighting fires.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Senator Tillman yesterday attacked woman suffrage, exonerated certain phases of modern society, extolled the virtues of good women, and predicted the weakening of the whole republic when that day shall come that finds woman relinquishing the home to take part in politics. Among other things he said: "The usefulness and goodness of woman vary inversely as the extent of her participation in politics. We can better afford to have corrupt politics than corrupt and bad women. It is a beautiful dream that female suffrage will purify politics. I thank God my lot was cast in a State where there is no such thing as divorce. American millionaires are buying their daughters titled husbands—just as they would purchase a horse or stallion."

W. S. Godbee, a prominent resident of Milen, Ga., was shot and killed yesterday, and Mrs. Florence Godbee, his wife, desperately wounded, by Mrs. Edna Perkins Godbee from whom Godbee was divorced several years ago. When the three met at the post-office, Mrs. Perkins-Godbee opened a handgun, drew out a revolver, and opened fire upon her former husband. She fired three shots, all of which took effect, and Godbee fell dead. The woman then turned her weapon upon Mrs. Godbee, inflicting three dangerous wounds. Mrs. Perkins Godbee was arrested later and held without bail. She refused to make a statement other than to say she was satisfied.

Miss Margaret Wesley, 21 years old, was killed yesterday at Edgemere, Long Island, when the wet skirt of her bathing suit caused a short circuit with the third rail of the Long Island Railroad tracks which she was crossing to reach her home. Miss Wesley had crossed one track, and she was about to step between the third rail of this and the third rail of the middle track, when the current leaped to her wet skirt from the live rail of the first track and dragged her across the rail of the middle track. The body showed but slight burns.
